INTRODUCTION

Today, the number of languages spoken in the world is about 600. They are from each other can develop and form unique family trees. Among these is the German language family English language is one of them. This is one of the urgent issues of the present time teaching foreign languages as a second language and instilling in the young generation love for the Motherland, education in the spirit of universal human values such as loyalty, high pride, and national pride.

And in our country, for the last 2-3 years, the young generation has mainly been learning English to engage in learning and from them B1 or C1 level certificates and ILTIES diplomas they are required to get it. The goal is the future of all countries in our Motherland the generation of their descendants to know foreign languages as our mother tongue, the developing present learning modern technologies without any obstacles

At the same time, teaching English as a foreign language is a very difficult task nowadays, especially when done in places where English serves a very limited purpose. At this point, a question may arise: "Why is there so much in learning English difficulties and problems are coming?" The reason is the vocabulary of modern roomers lack of concentration, lack of discipline, boredom and speech problems, including insufficient exposure to English, inadequate classrooms lack of equipment and qualified teachers.

The task of English language teachers is only to teach learners or their

English language skills, i.e. reading, writing, listening and speaking skills not only to pay more attention, but also to give them a passion for English, good from helping and encouraging by providing attitude and great motivation consists of

Despite this, today teachers speak English he faces a number of difficulties and obstacles in teaching. These are the following:

1. Disrupted classroom environment. The environment is very important in teaching and learning English is considered A disturbing atmosphere in the classroom distracts students from learning the language has a negative effect.

2. Limited teaching resources. There is a lot to learn, not just English depends on the resources. Teachers often face such problems.

That is, the resources necessary for teachers to learn English effectively not sufficiently presented. Without them, it will be very difficult to teach and learn the language. Resources include speakers, microphones, projectors, computer systems, and more types include digital devices. With these, teaching and learning is very effective and it will be interesting.

3. The number of students in the class. The presence of a large number of students in the classroom is a teacher causes a lot of anxiety and stress. Because there are many students teachers should make more effort and hard work to teach.

Problems that arise on the part of many students are as follows:

1. They make noise and disturb the teacher.

2. It will be difficult to manage the students in the class.

3. It will be very difficult to attract a large number of students to study.

4. Educational resources will not be enough for all students.

4. Limited time. Time is very important in learning and teaching English.

Time for teachers to observe their students and teach them at their level need However, there is very little class time allocated for teaching this subject. And this is the teachers it is a very difficult task for them to teach in a short time.

5. The fact that students are attached to teachers. Another one that teachers face

A notable problem is that students are completely dependent on teachers. They themselves they don't try to learn and speak. Students to teachers every time they refer to them to help them learn and give them the right answers.

They do not try to correct words and sentences when speaking English.

In this problem, students talk about different tenses and words in English who have not studied the technical conditions of use.

6. Students who are bored and not interested in learning English. Boredom of students and lack of interest in learning English is also a problem facing teachers.

Sometimes students are not interested in learning English and attending lectures.

Then they try to engage in other activities.

Sometimes they talk to others during the lecture and do other meaningless things they disturbed the teachers by doing it.

Along with problems and difficulties, there are certainly no solutions to them it's not. The following are the best solutions:

1. Educational competitions in classes

Competitions play a very important role in learning English. English these students forces to learn the language, such as debates, quizzes, etc.

Various competitions held among students make learning English interesting makes them participate in competitions and win among their colleagues encourages.

Competitions make teaching English easier for teachers. Teachers should organize competition training among students.

2. Using multimedia during the lecture

Often, English teachers use old and traditional methods in teaching they use

But new devices and gadgets specially designed for educational purposes can improve English language teaching and learning.

Teachers should use multimedia tools in their lectures.

It makes learning English more interesting and understandable for students.

Because instead of what is written in the books, the students read visual images, videos, they can easily understand the thought through sounds etc.

3. Teaching through games

Games are the type of activity that engages students the most. Games educational and it also plays a very important role in learning. It is possible to play with students in classrooms

There are many educational games. Games help to increase vocabulary. Har

There is a game of placing the missing word in different types of sentences. This is the vocabulary forms a lot. Students learn the types of words and their meaning and their they understand the place in the sentence. In the process of learning English, teachers play in the classroom should be used to play.

4. Manage lesson and timetable rules

Teachers should make the rules and schedule of classes, students should follow them rules and discipline play a very important role in learning English students turn off their mobile phones, do not talk to their friends, to come to class on time and do homework on time and to the teacher

If students violate one of the rules, they will be fined should or should be referred to their parents

CONCLUSION

It is only the teacher who can educate the young generation and make them highly competent not only due to duty, but also related to the family environment and community attention. Scientific studies and researches show that all that a person receives during his life

70% of information is received by the child under the age of 6 shows how important the role of preschool education is in the development.

By the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev on August 16, 2017 100 percent of 5-6 year old children to preschool educational institutions at the held meeting of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan in order to determine coverage measures "On the organization of activities of the Ministry of Preschool Education of the Republic of Uzbekistan". the decision was made. And in these institutions, English is also taught from an early age training was determined. The reason is, as our ancestors used to say, "to knowledge acquired in youth carved pattern". It is not for nothing, as shown in this article, how early knowledge

If you start receiving it, it will eliminate some of the problems and difficulties indicated above as it causes easy acquisition of language skills and qualifications. Especially if this knowledge, skills, skills are absorbed through various games and educational activities, the child develops foreign languages as naturally as his mother tongue. Educational games not only knowledge forms skills and abilities in a child, but at the same time he is a child ensures healthy physical development, mentally refreshes, self-confidence strengthens and helps to form social relations with the surrounding people will help
