Today, Uzbekistan is the most beautiful and unique country for all of us dear mother is our Motherland. The world of practical and rapid development in Uzbekistan is being recognized by the community. It was a land of noble renewal Uzbekistan is a source of pride for all young people. Now It is traveling over Uzbekistan. This is the fun of tomorrow He works with enthusiasm and enthusiasm. Action strategy well-known scientists of the world recognized today the significant changes that are being implemented, They say that even the experts who share their full views have a doubtful perspective is evaluating. In the first year of his presidency, the head of the republic is different sought to make the state more open to predictions and the result is manifested in our daily life.

In fact, there are People's reception centers operating in all regions started talking openly about their problems. British author According to Shavkat Mirziyoyev, there is a lot for young people in the reforms the creation of jobs also plays a decisive role.

One of the words that is often expressed in Uzbekistan is "liberalization". The president says "Get rich!" Entering into the people's banks and providing loans tasked, so that people build greenhouses in their yards and earn let them multiply. Even helping farmers to create a business plan Departments with specialists were established. At the same time, in our country in 2017-2021, the Republic of Uzbekistan defining five priority areas of development in the Action Strategy assigned tasks are carried out consistently. This software document paved the way for the transition of our country to a completely new stage of development. According to experts, the adoption of the Action Strategy is important for Uzbekistan was a step and created the necessary solid foundation. Pragmatic and effective communication: Modern information and communication technologies gave a new spirit to state and society relations. Industry development new relations between the state and society, state bodies and citizens forms are being put into practice. In this sense, Uzbekistan The virtual lobby of the President of the Republic is state power and administration indicator of the effectiveness of the bodies, the depth of local problems is gaining importance as an analysis and solution mechanism. The virtual lobby addresses issues that concern the population for a short period of time has become an effective solution. This is also the statistics of appeals confirms. That is, until today, more than one million appeals have been received from citizens and 94 percent of them were considered. Thus, state bodies and the principle of responsibility of officials to the society is realized in practice is being released. Citizens to the reforms implemented in the country the sense of belonging has increased. This is the relationship between the state and the people it is important in the strengthening of trust, stability and development of society serves as a factor. The most important thing is that experts are in the way of thinking and worldview of the population they note that positive changes are taking place. For them, this is society is a decisive factor in the realization of the tasks ahead.

It is known that the development of any society depends on human capital, i.e. intellectual capital potential, health, education, labor productivity, high quality of life. In today's modern world, this factor is the main creative economy is a locomotive. According to the UN study, the results of Uzbekistan in 2016 ranked among the countries with a high level of human development. Today, the development of entrepreneurship in Uzbekistan is consistent and economic became the driving force of development. According to the results of 2016, it is small the share of business in the gross domestic product is 56.9, in industry 38.9, retail trade

87.1% in turnover, 50.8% in paid services. This is the economy 77.9% of the working population is employed in the sector. In general, the economy, politics and all spheres of Uzbekistan today a new method, a new factor, new changes are observed in the directions. Today, Uzbekistan is creating a belt of prosperity around itself, of society's life by widely applying modern approaches and methods to all aspects is rapidly mobilizing the creative potential. This is the country's economy that the development is evaluated from the point of view of increasing the well-being of our people is noteworthy. Such an approach, without a doubt, is at its peak in the near future gives results. After all, a great country will have a powerful leader. Our new Uzbekistan for that, we need to be strong.
